

Homeless Liaison Coordinators Network

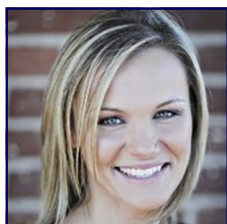

Kick-Off

May 4, 2017 1:00 PM—3:00 PM At Metro ECSU

Have you been charged with developing and refining your McKinney Vento support systems for homeless youth? This Homeless Liaison Coordinator Network provides supplemental educational supports for those who are assisting students experiencing homeless situations.

Liaisons will gain networking and brainstorming opportunities as well as guidance and connections with current practices in Minnesota. Share your insights and ideas from and to your district with this network.

Join this network to help homeless children break the cycle of poverty through education. This session is a prequel to the 2017-18 school year network. Homeless Liaison Coordinators will identify themes and must-haves for subsequent sessions.

Facilitator, Martina Wagner, Ed. D:

Dr. Martina Wagner has a background in serving English Language Learners that has spanned over twenty years in grades pre-K through adult education. Her professional passions and expertise include best practice and programming for ELs, Sheltered Instruction (SIOP[®]), Co-teaching, Special Education Identifications of ELs, WIDA assessments, and English Language Learning assessments and data.
