

Algebrafication Follow-Up Network

This network is grant funded and is open only to the following districts/schools: Eden Prairie, Osseo, Roseville, ISD 287, ISD 917, North Heights Christian Academy (NHCA), and St. John School of Little Canada. Participants in the Algebrafication workshops held previously this year are invited to join the Algebrafication Follow-Up Network. An excellent opportunity to continue growing professionally through presentations and training, this network will also give educators an opportunity to connect and ideate with other professionals about challenges, concerns, resources and knowledge.

Presenter: Christy Pettis is a lecturer in the Multiple Pathways to Teaching department at the University of Minnesota, where she currently specializes in mathematics for elementary teachers. She also mentors new teachers and develops PD for teachers in grades K-12. Having taught at the elementary, middle, and high school levels, she is particularly interested in common ways that algebrafication and a love of mathematics may be cultivated in learners from kindergarten to college.
