For: Minnesota K-12 Educational Interpreters

Workshop description:

This workshop is meant to give educational interpreters a glimpse into the life of a mainstreamed Deaf student as they navigate the Phy-ed class with a sign language interpreter. We will address non-traditional games such as big base, pickle ball, dodgeball, ultimate frisbee and more. We will talk vocab, classifiers, and concepts so bring your questions and be ready to hear some great stories. If you think interpreting Phy-ed can be hard, then you should try being the student participating in these action-packed moving games of don't get hit by the flying object!

Presenters:

Jakey Lingle currently resides in Hastings, MN. Single father of 2 wonderful, amazing children. Aria, 7 and Mathias, 4. Employed at plasticprinters.com as a digital press operator. Jakey loves spending time with his girlfriend Anna and his children. He coaches for his daughter and son's hockey team and his hobbies include working on his house, spending time outdoors, hunting and doing a bunch of different activities and is passionate about playing disc golf in his spare time.
