

MN Low Incidence Projects Region 11 OT & PT Community of Practice is honored to bring a day of professional development on

Ethical Considerations in School-based OT and PT

February 22, 2019

1:00 p.m. to 3:15 p.m.

Presenter: Kathleen Picard

Event Agenda:

1:00-1:20: OT and PT Codes of Ethics Review and Discussion

1:20-1:45: Discussion of the RIPS Model and its Application to Practice

1:45-2:00: Ethical Decision-Making Toolkit Development

2:00-2:15: Break

2:15-2:30: Identification of Common Ethical Situations in the School Setting

2:30-3:15: Workshop: Analysis of Case Studies Using the RIPS Model

Course Learning Objectives – Participants will:

1. Become familiar with OT and PT specific codes of ethics
2. Increase their awareness of common situations that face OTs and PTs in the school setting
3. Understand the RIPS model of ethical decision making
4. Analyze setting-specific case studies using the RIPS model
5. Develop an ethical decision-making toolkit

Minnesota Department of Education Conference Center Room CC15 & CC16

1500 MN-36

Roseville, MN 55113

Fee: $15

Register online:

metroecu.myquickreg.com/event/calendar

Registration Deadline: Feb 21, 2019

Registration Contact

Gail Jankowski

gail.jankowski@metroecu.org

Program Contact

Kayna Plaisted

kayna.plaisted@metroecu.org

Course has been approved by the MN Board of Physical Therapy for 2 Ethics CEU Hours. General CEUs will also be available.

This initiative is made possible in part with a grant from the Minnesota Department of Education using Federal funding CFDA 84.027A, Special Education - Grants to States. This conference does not necessarily represent the policy of the federal Department of Education or the state Department of Education; endorsement by the federal or state government should not be assumed.