

LEADERSHIP DESIGN ACADEMY FOR PERSONALIZED LEARNING

August 20 & 21, 2019

January 8, April 22, 2020

8:30 am-3:30 pm (Check-in 8:00 am)

Facilitators Include: Dr. Jim Rickabaugh, Brenda Vogds, and Dria Setter; The Institute for Personalized Learning

For: District Teams looking to move beyond getting started, who want to take personalized learning to the next level. Teams must include Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent/Director of Teaching and Learning.

Teams will:

- Take a personalized learning idea and transform it into an actionable design to be implemented into practice.
- Learn, build, and apply a strategic action plan based on a customized entry point.
- Design and align a customized personalized learning model using a 6-step transformation process.
- Revise and expand on personalized learning ideas as part of a coaching and feedback process.
- Create a customized process that moves your personalized learning work toward systemic change.

This Cohort Learning opportunity is designed as a two- year process. The dates, content and costs on this flyer reflect year one only.

Participation Cost: Teams may be up to five participants. Additional members $100 per person
