

Many Faces of Autism

This 1.5 hour training video is an essential training for ALL educators working with students with ASD. Consider having your paraprofessionals or others who are new to working with students with ASD watch this video for professional development. This training includes insight and information directly from individuals with ASD.

Click here to view