

Culturally Responsive Educators Framework

November 23, November 30, December 8, December 15, 2021

4:00 pm – 6:00 pm

(Virtual via Zoom)

As a framework for organizing instruction and educational systems, The Culturally Responsive Educators Framework; Mindset & Skillset supports teachers in planning and fostering and implementing Equitable mindsets and skill sets for all students. The Culturally Responsive Educators Framework is designed for K-12 teachers and leaders who want to maximize equity implementation for effective instructional delivery for culturally and linguistically diverse learners. Teachers will learn to shift mindset and skill sets to reach and support all learners. The Culturally Responsive Educators Framework is a framework for planning and delivering instruction in culturally responsive ways to ensure equitable access to educational systems and for student achievement.

Target Audience: Educators, Leaders, and support staff

The goal of the Culturally Responsive Educators Framework is to help teachers integrate culturally responsive teaching practices through an equitable lens to ensure high quality teaching and learning. The Culturally Responsive Educators Framework is broken into 2 Domains: Mindset and Skill Set.
