Workshop description: When working with mentees we are sometimes faced with people who are only willing to do the bare minimum. This workshop will provide you tips and tricks for revitalizing their buy-in. We will focus on how you give feedback, ideas for motivating mentees, and new approaches for facilitating mentoring activities.

Presenter: Hilary Maag holds a PHD in Organizational Leadership and is an experienced professor with over 17 years of post-secondary teaching experience. Her doctoral research focused on online training and sign language. She is also a nationally certified sign language interpreter and has been interpreting for over 20 years. She holds three national certifications: Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf (RID) Certificate of Interpretation, Certificate of Transliteration and National Interpreter Certification-Master level. In addition to her doctorate, she holds three post-secondary degrees related to ASL/Sign Language Interpreting: Associates in Interpreting, Bachelor's in ASL and Deaf Culture, and a Master's in Deaf education. She has been a professor in two Interpreter Training Programs and is currently the Program Director for a large online bachelor's degree program.
