

Leading Culturally and Linguistically Diverse Schools

For School Administrators

March 8, 2023. Hybrid, Via Zoom.

9:00AM-3:00PM

About the event:

Dr. Amy Young will facilitate the day with the following anticipated outcomes:

- Leverage students' linguistic and cultural assets
- Learn from and with multilingual/multicultural populations
- Develop all learner' academic language proficiency
- Access instructional frameworks and resources
- Provide supports and facilitate academic achievement in all classes
- Ensure equitable educational opportunities

Dr. Amy Young is currently the EL Specialist for School Support at the Minnesota Department of Education. Previously, she was the EL coordinator and elementary principal for Owatonna Public Schools and before that, she worked at the New York University in the Multilingual Multicultural Studies Program. She also teaches for the Center for Advanced Research on Language Acquisition at the University of Minnesota where she completed her PhD. in Second Languages and Cultures Education. She lived for over 15 years in Mexico and has published on research interests including strategies for promoting collaborative dialogue, attending to increased language complexity, and integrating language and content.

Testimonial:

"I really enjoyed seeing how meeting the needs of multilingual students relates to other populations and their parents as well as the classroom strategies and online resources."
