April 11, 2024

11:00AM – 12:30PM

In-Person at Twin Cities 400 Tavern

A space for Principals and Assistant Principals from around the Twin Cities Metro Area to connect with one another on a regular basis. We will brainstorm topics to discuss at each session for collaboration and dialogue with an action-oriented focus. Lunch purchased on own, if desired.

Target Audience: K-12 Principals and Assistant Principals

Facilitator, Chris Streiff Oji, M. Ed., Ed.S. (she/her/hers)

Chris was born and raised in Los Angeles, California but after 31 years considers Minnesota to be home. She has 27 years of experience in Education in Minnesota serving as a teacher K-12, middle and elementary school building administrator. She led professional development and continuous improvement at the district level for the Rochester Public Schools where she assisted schools in developing their strategic focus with an equity lens. She has been an equity advocate addressing gaps with measurable results both academically and behaviorally at both the district and building level. She developed FISH! For Schools Curriculum and consulted with school districts across the U.S. to improve culture and climate in schools. Chris completed the NAESP Leadership Immersion Institute on coaching and mentoring principals. She currently serves as the Professional Development Strategist for Metro ECSU.
