

Student Behavior

How to work effectively
when negative behavior arises

Online prerecorded presentations available to registrants to view at any time for two months during April and May 2024.

19th Annual Winning Strategies Conference for Paraprofessionals and Future Teachers

Fee: $15 (includes access for April and May)

Registration Link: MetroECSU.myquickreg.com

Registration Deadline: May 15, 2024

Registration Contact: Gail Jankowski, gail.jankowski@brightworksmn.org

Program Contact: Kayna Plaisted, kayna.plaisted@brightworksmn.org

Audience: The target participants are paraprofessionals and future teachers, although any service provider could benefit from the information presented. We will provide registrants with a link to a web page filled with pre-recorded presentations. This link will include several professional development segments to offer practical strategies for working with student behavior.

This initiative is made possible in part with a grant from the Minnesota Department of Education using Federal funding CFDA 84.027A, Special Education - Grants to States. This conference does not necessarily represent the policy of the federal Department of Education or the state Department of Education; endorsement by the federal or state government should not be assumed.